

High-Impact Agile Leadership for Hybrid Teams

Created in collaboration with Northwestern University School of Professional Studies, this course equips professionals with the agile practices and expertise needed to lead teams effectively in work environments that include both remote and in-person teams. Build trust and enable collaboration and alignment across distances, time zones, and work styles.

Northwestern

On-demand

Duration:

4 hours

Credential:

Joint microcredential from Scrum Alliance and Northwestern University

Languages:

English

Who it's for

- Agile leaders managing hybrid or distributed teams
- Scrum masters, agile coaches, and team facilitators
- Product owners and delivery leaders working across locations
- Managers supporting collaboration, flow, and team health
- Organizations operating in hybrid or remote-first environments

Why it matters for enterprises

Hybrid work introduces complexity that can undermine delivery if not intentionally addressed. High-Impact Agile Leadership for Hybrid Teams helps organizations develop leaders who can enable agile ways of working across time zones and distances. By improving communication and adaptive workflows, enterprises can improve productivity in today's hybrid workplaces.

Key learning outcomes

- Identify the characteristics and challenges of hybrid teams
- Build trust, connection, and psychological safety across distances
- Design communication and collaboration strategies for hybrid work
- Apply agile values and principles in hybrid environments
- Create and adapt hybrid workflows to support team needs
- Facilitate inclusive scrum events using digital tools
- Support continuous improvement in hybrid team practices

Course modules

1. Overcoming Hybrid Team Challenges
2. Best Practices for Collaboration and Communication in a Hybrid Environment
3. Agile Foundations for the Hybrid Environment
4. Facilitating Scrum Events in a Hybrid Environment

"I had an excellent experience with Scrum Alliance. Their programs are very well-structured and provide actionable insights into agile practices."

— Scrum Alliance member

Interested in this course?
Contact Bluetellura AS

Contact Bluetellura

